

musicerunion.com

musicerunion is a union for bands, live houses, and music producers. It is a place where bands can show them self and find their opportunity to project them self.

musicerunion provides a platform for underground band to find more opportunity. This platform is consisting of two main group, music producer or show host, and underground band or local bands. For band users, they can publish their compositions to the website to let the producers know more about them. And for those producers and show hosts, they can publish the show request for all the bands users to take. Our website is mean to provide a convenient and efficient way to manage band communication.
